

Your story is unique and important and how you imagine your ceremony and the feeling you want to convey is equally important. The wedding ceremony is the doorway to your new life together and it should be a highlight of your wedding day providing memories for years to come.

Melissa Soncini understands the importance of this day and works with you to ensure that your wedding ceremony is tailored to your theme. It's your day, it's your wedding and making the right choice of marriage celebrant plays a crucial part to ensuring that happens.

Wedding Celebrant Tailored to Your Needs

Whether you are looking for an extravaganza or something a little more intimate, whether it's a traditional wedding overlooking Sydney harbour or a ceremony by the beach surrounded by the sounds of waves, Melissa Soncini will work with you to create a wedding ceremony that captures the essence of your dream day. Your wedding celebrations will be completely unique to the personality of you and your partner. Melissa has conducted ceremonies at all of Sydney's premier wedding venues including parks, iconic beaches, gardens, chapels, on boats, in backyards, hotels, restaurants and even lighthouses!

Unique Wedding Ceremonies

Melissa is a qualified, registered and experienced Civil Marriage Celebrant, who has presided over hundreds of marriage ceremonies and has worked with all manner of weddings. Melissa will work with you to tailor your day to how you want it to be. For overseas or interstate visitors, Melissa can work with you to find that right venue and offer advice on Australia's legal requirements. With Skype, email and the ease of mobile phones, communicating and planning from afar is easy.

Get rid of any wedding ceremony stress you have because you'll know that Melissa will make your day memorable, relaxed and fun so that you can enjoy the moment.

Start planning the best celebration of your life by contacting Melissa to set up an obligation free meeting.