We Play It Cause We Love IT!

SLAM TANGO DUO&TRIO

“There's a feeling you get when you see a band that really knows what they're doing, a little chill goes up your spine when you hear a great song you love done RIGHT... Slam Tango keep it coming!” Like a great meal, nobody knows every ingredient that goes into it- they only know they like it and want MORE. Experienced Over years and hundreds of gigs up and down Australia and overseas, duo or trio, from pubs and clubs to weddings to high profile corporate functions, we ALWAYS put everything we've got into giving the crowd a fantastic time, they know they're in good hands from the very first song.

Corinne Cox: Vocals/Percussion.

Music is in the air on the tropical French island of Mauritius where Corinne comes from, and you can feel all that passion and heat in every song she sings. A crazy, contagious sense of fun, soulful voice and percussion talent make Corinne in constant demand in shows and as a session singer - From Piaf to Chisel, pub bands to 20 piece jazz orchestras, Corinne throws her heart and soul into every performance and always leaves them wanting more.

Steve Cox: Vocals/Guitar.

the Gulf Coast of Southern USA, when an opportunity to play in Australia came he fell in love with everything Oz and has been here since. Steve sings, plays guitar, drums, handles production and sound and arranges the backing for the band. At home on stage, he's worked in many successful shows and bands, studio session work and co-written soundtracks for documentaries and film.

Steve Smillie: Vocals/Guitar. Also known as “Mr Wonderful”, Steve weaves his guitar magic into our trio. His reputation as one of Central Coast's most versatile and varied performers is definitely well earned- Steve is able to jump into anything and is in high demand for projects ranging from hard-hitting pub rock bands to country! All while managing to stamp his inimitable style and tone on every note.
