If anyone is after some live music for a wedding, or any other function, I highly recommend Darren. He played at my sister-in-law's wedding on Saturday and it was awesome! Everyone had such a great night. My brother kept commenting on how good you were. It was great to see him up there with you, even if it was only for one song! You never know, my daughter may one day get some singing lessons off you.

Bronzed Belle - Spray Tans by Mel - Everyone had such a great night, my brother kept commenting on how good you were. It was great to see him up there with you, even if it was only for one song! You never know, my daughter may one day get some singing lessons off you. If you could only see here Frozen rendition of "Let it go", you would see she is a singer in the making [insert sarcasm here!]. At 4 years old, she doesn't know much about holding a tune - just bellowing the high notes as loud as she can!

Ruby Le' Rose Bridal - Met this wonderful talented singer today. For any brides and grooms seeking a talented Musician to play at your wedding, this man is the man to book. His taste in music is diverse. Please like and share his page, I could have listened to him all day long.
